

Chief Executive

Canterbury Basketball Association (CBA) is one of New Zealand's most dynamic regional sports administrations.

In addition to managing development, club and representative programmes, CBA has a management contract for the Canterbury Rams in the National Basketball League and will shortly launch the Christchurch Sirens as the first New Zealand team in the Australian Women's Basketball League.

An exciting opportunity exists for a person with proven management and leadership skills to join the organisation as Chief Executive Officer, to drive the next stage of growth within the organisation. Key objectives include:

- Generating and managing resources to allow the delivery of all CBA programmes
- Leading the development and delivery of the CBA's strategic and operational planning process
- Growing interest in and engagement with basketball within the community
- Providing clear leadership and mentoring to staff and volunteers

The ideal candidate will have results-based business acumen; demonstrable financial management expertise; proven relationship building competency and the drive to lead a growth organisation. You will be able to demonstrate exceptional interpersonal and communication skills, with a proven ability to handle conflicting priorities.

A position description can be downloaded from the CBA website at www.canterburybasketball.co.nz. Please send email applications to kevins@xtra.co.nz and written applications to CBA, c/o Kevin Simcock, PO Box 25108, Christchurch. Applications close on August 24, 2007.
