

STATUTORY DECLARATION FOR NON-RESTRICTED PLAYER STATUS

Completion of the following is required by players who either have not played in the New Zealand NBL/CBL prior to the 2009 season or who wish to change their playing status from restricted to non-restricted.

I

of (address)

do solemnly declare that:

1. I have read Rule 7 of the CBL Rules and Regulations relating to the classification of players in the CBL. I have read Rule 11 of the NBL Rules relating to the classification of players in the NBL.
2. I am eligible to play as a non-restricted player because I have New Zealand citizenship and have not played for another country in an official FIBA competition.

There are four main ways in which you can become a New Zealand citizen:

- b) by being born overseas to a mother or father who is a New Zealand citizen
- c) by being legally adopted by a New Zealand citizen
- d) by being born in New Zealand

3. For a), b) and c) above I acknowledge that I must provide proof of citizenship to the League Manager of the CBL/NBL with this statutory declaration. For d) above I acknowledge that I am required to produce evidence of citizenship to the League Manager of the CBL/NBL on request.
4. I consent to the League Manager or any person authorised by him/her to make any enquiries and to obtain any information from any body or person in relation to or arising from this declaration. I acknowledge my right to have access to this information. This consent is given in accordance with the Privacy Act 1993.

AND I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the Oaths and Declarations Act 1957.
