Blocks	Adrian Torrie (0.7)	Thomas Abercrombie (2.2)

Notes

If there was an opportunity for the Jets to beat the Pistons it would be now with the Pistons without Tony Ronaldson who will be away in Australia this week and also injuries to Mike Homik and Puke Lendon. History has not been favorable for the Jets losing to the Pistons nine of the last ten games (Last time Jets beat the Pistons was in 2006). Pistons will have former Wollongong Hawks big David Gruber who should help on the inside, but it is uncertain how many minutes he will be playing. Jets had a strong first quarter against the Cougars last week winning it 30-21, but a horror second quarter was what let the Jets down only managing to score four points losing the quarter by 23. In the four games this year the Jets have lost by an average margin of 31 points, whereas the Pistons have won all there five games by a margin of nearly 21 points. The one bright spot for the Jets team this season is their bench which is averaging 21.3 points a game compared to the Pistons who are only averaging 11 points. The Jets will need to shoot at least in the high forties to early fifties from the field if they have a chance of victory, currently shooting 38%.

Steals	Everard Bartlett (2.2)	Eric Devendorf (2.4)
Blocks	Jamil Terrell (1.7)	Thomas Abercrombie (2.2)

Notes

The two teams met last week and it was the Pistons toughest test yet winning in overtime 82-79. Hawks did a brilliant job on league leading scorer Eric Devendorf who fouled out in 22 minutes with a season low 13 points. Hawks were without star import Josh Pace who should be back from the US to play his first game in the NBL since 2007. Both Pace and Devendorf played their collegiate career at Syracuse University, so this match up will be one to watch out for. In that same game Alex Pledger also fouled out playing only 20 minutes, but he will not afford to foul out this week with no Tony Ronaldson and Mike Homik. Hawks proved they are extremely tough at home upsetting the Exodus Saints last week 92-72. Hawks welcomed back point guard Jarrold Kenny who played limited minutes with an ongoing back injury. Hawks will nearly have their full squad on hand for this game apart from point guard Paul Henare. Pistons have won their last four meeting against the Hawks and are currently on a 12 game winning streak (Last loss was on 25/05/2009 against the Saints).

Zerofees Southland Sharks (3-4) v Fico Finance Nelson Giants (4-2), 7pm

Sharks	Giants

Steals	Rene Rougeau (3.1)	Phill Jones (2.2)
Blocks	Rene Rougeau (1.9)	Mika Vukona (2.3)

Notes

It was a mixed weekend for the Sharks in Round Five losing a nail biter against the Airs, but beating the Cougars for their first ever win at home. Friday's game will be very tough for the Sharks who lose their leading scorer Mike Rose who proved to be a very good short term signing for the Sharks averaging nearly 23 points a game. The Sharks have made a coup though signing former college and Australian league star Mike Helms who will bring a lot of scoring for the Sharks. Unfortunately Helms will not be available for this game so the Sharks will be undermanned against a Nelson side that should have their full squad available. Giants Darryl Jones returned last week from a knee injury and was put in the starting lineup after Tony Rampton was a late withdrawal with a migraine. Giants nearly upset the Heat last week thanks to Mika Vukona who had his best game so far in the season with 19 points and 5 blocks.

Exodus Saints (3-3) v Taranaki Mountain Airs (4-2), 7pm

At TSB Bank Arena, Wellington

Referees – Dallas Pickering, Yalla Edwards, Gareth Tehan

Head to Head*: Saints 4 Airs 2

Last Meeting: Saints 107-59 (7th May 2009)

Projected Starting Fives

	Saints	Airs
Point Guard	Lindsay Tait	Tyrone Davey
Shooting Guard	Darryl Hudson	Jack Leasure
Small Forward	Troy McLean	Alex Wastney
Power Forward	Leon Henry	Aaron Bailey-Nowell
Center	Nick Horvath	Demarshay Johnson

Leading Scorers (Points per game)

Saints	Airs
Darryl Hudson (20.7)	Jack Leasure (24.7)
Erron Maxey (17.4)	Demarshay Johnson (15.3)
Lindsay Tait (13.7)	Aaron Bailey-Nowell (12.0)

Team Leaders in Other Categories (Per game)

	Saints	Airs
Rebounds	Nick Horvath (8.3)	Demarshay Johnson (8.0)
Assists	Lindsay Tait (5.0)	Tyrone Davey (3.0)
Steals	Lindsay Tait (2.7)	Jack Leasure (2.2)
Blocks	Nick Horvath (1.0)	Jeremiah Trueman (1.2)

Notes

The Airs look to win their fifth straight and a third in a row on the road when they play the struggling Exodus Saints who lost by twenty on the road against the Bay Hawks last week. The Airs are one of the top teams when it comes to field goal percentage at 48% holding their opponents to 44%. Saints will be a test for the Airs defensively, currently second in the league in scoring averaging nearly 95 points per game. Last time the two teams met at TSB Arena the Saints romped Taranaki Dynamos by 48 points, but this is a totally new Taranaki outfit. Match up of the game will be of the shooting guards Jack Leasure from the Airs and Saints Darryl Hudson, both of them leading their respective teams in scoring. Saints may be without big man Nick Horvath who suffered an ankle sprain in this week's training so is questionable for the game.

Saturday, April 10

OceanaGold Nuggets (0-6) v Fico Finance Nelson Giants (3-2), 7pm

At Edgar Centre, Dunedin

Referees –Andy Thackray, Matt Bathurst, James Champion

Head to Head: Nuggets 0 Giants 5

Last Meeting: Giants 92-60 (Round Three)

Projected Starting Fives

	Nuggets	Giants
Point Guard	Sam To'omata	Michael Fitchett
Shooting Guard	Riki Buckrell	Phill Jones
Small Forward	Matt Trueman	Mika Vukona
Power Forward	Tyler Amaya	Michael Harrison
Center	Antoine Tisby	Tony Rampton

Leading Scorers (Points per game)

Nuggets	Giants
Antoine Tisby (23.5)	Phil Jones (25.2)
Tyler Amaya (20.0)	Michael Harrison (18.8)
Sam To'omata (6.3)	Mika Vukona (13.3)

Team Leaders in Other Categories (Per game)

	Nuggets	Giants
Rebounds	Antoine Tisby (10.3)	Mika Vukona (7.3)
Assists	Tyler Amaya (3.8)	Phill Jones (3.4)
Steals	Antoine Tisby (1.5)	Phill Jones (2.2)
Blocks	Antoine Tisby (0.7)	Mika Vukona (2.3)

Notes

The OceanaGold Nuggets look to avoid their seventh straight loss when they host the Fico Finance Giants who are playing their fourth road game of the season. The two teams met back in Round Three with the Giants extending their winning streak over the Nuggets to 13 with a comprehensive 92-60 win. In that game the Giants had five players score in double figures whereas the Nuggets managed to have two players score in double figures, the rest of the team combining to score only 16 points making a measly five field goals. Phill Jones is continuing his current form currently second in the league in scoring 25.2 points per game and will surely be a strong candidate for Most Valuable Player this season. Nuggets Antoine Tisby has been the one bright spot for the Nuggets being one of four players in the league to average a double double in points and rebounds at 23.5 points and 10.3 rebounds per game (Note: Rick Rickert, Alex Pledger and Jamil Terrell the three other players to average a double double).

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Round Five

Jeremy Kench (Christchurch Cougars)

15 points (4/7 FG, 3/4 3pt, 4/4 FT), 4 rebounds, 8 assists and 7 steals in the 85-68 win over the Manawatu Jets.

What a difference a week makes for Cougars point guard Jeremy Kench who averaged only 2.5 points in the two previous losses. Kench has bounced back with 15 points and 7 steals against the struggling Jets who are still without a win this season. The Cougars guard is currently second in the league in assists averaging 5.3 per game.

Kench edged Fico Finance Giants Mika Vukona for this week's POW honors. Vukona had a tremendous game against the Harbour Heat with 19 points, 9 rebounds and 5 blocks. His team mate Phill Jones also had a strong game with a double double of 25 points and 11 rebounds. But it would not be enough as the Heat remained unbeaten winning 83-79.

Heat big man Rick Rickert now goes to the top of the overall rankings knocking off Pistons Eric Devendorf for the first time this season. Rickert has been very consistent in the Heat five wins averaging 20 points and 12.4 rebounds per game.

Southland Sharks Mike Rose has been very good in his short term contract with the franchise averaging nearly 23 points per game. Rose guided the Sharks to their second win against the Christchurch Cougars with 24 points and 5 steals in the 85-79 win.

Waikato Pistons Thomas Abercrombie goes to third in the overall rankings behind his team mate Eric Devendorf. Abercrombie had 22 points, 5 rebounds and 5 steals in the overtime victory against the Bay Hawks in Rotorua. The Pistons sophomore is currently in the top 10 in the league in points (8th), rebounds (8th), blocks (2nd) and steals (10th).

NBL Trivia of the Week

Which NBL Player brought up his 3000th point in this year's NBL season?

Answer: Paora Winitana (Christchurch Cougars) brought up his 3000th NBL point against the Southland Sharks in Round Three (March 26th 2010)

Paora Winitana has been a consummate professional throughout his career playing his 13th season in National League, beginning his career 1996 with the North Harbour Vikings. Originally from Hawkes Bay, Winitana finally played for his home town in 2001, eventually winning a championship with them in 2006. In 2009 he joined the new Christchurch Cougars franchise leading them to the semi finals in their first season. Currently in his second season with the Cougars Winitana is averaging 20 points in the first eight games. Winitana has played 216 career games with an average of 14.1 points per game.
